John Carman announces bid for Atlantic County Freeholder-at-Large.

Egg Harbor Township Committeeman John Carman announced today, he will be seeking the nomination of the Republican Party for Freeholder-at-Large in 2011. Carman is currently a sixteen year committeeman serving the community of Egg Harbor Township.

John has a long history of community volunteerism. He has served on the Egg Harbor Township Environmental Commission, Zoning Board of Adjustment, Economic Development Commission, and is currently in his twenty second year serving on the planning board.

As a union carpenter, John has helped build the parks our children play on and is looking forward to helping build a brighter future for Atlantic County. He has extensive knowledge in land use issues, stabilizing taxes and local governments.
